Benita is an experienced and passionate photographer and creative professional. With experience in numerous fields and high pressure environments, Benita is able to make sense of complex briefs to exceed the clients' expectations.

She sold her first photograph - taken on film - at age 16 for a whopping R15 (around US$0.80) and has, since then, worked for national and international corporates, individuals, and nonprofits.

Benita listens in pictures and experiences the world around her through the lens and ink on a page.

In her free time she enjoys spending time with family, rock climbing, and nature. She enjoys sushi, good coffee and pretty colours in the sky.
